

Dr. Ethel E. Johnson Memorial Scholarship

The Florida Society for Respiratory Care is proud to offer this scholarship in memory of a dedicated Florida Board of Respiratory Care Board Member, and accomplished South Florida Educator. The scholarship awards $500 and a free one year membership to the AARC/FSRC post graduation to a Respiratory student who has demonstrated commitment to the highest standards in respiratory care and to public health.

Scholarship Criteria: Non-Tobacco User

1. Student must be entering or be in the last year of an accredited Respiratory program.
2. Upon receipt of the application, the student must hold a minimum 3.0 out of 4.0, or equivalent, GPA for all required Respiratory program course work.
3. Student must demonstrate an aptitude for serving those afflicted with lung disease, as well as a commitment to the Respiratory care profession.
4. Student will have documentation of 8 hours of community service, preferably in healthcare related organizations including but not limited to the FSRC, attendance at the Florida Board of Respiratory Care meetings, American Lung Association, American Heart Association, COPD Foundation, American Cancer Society, American Red Cross or other medical-related organizations. * Please use attached Volunteer Documentation Form to record your hours.
5. Student must submit the completed application form, including all required attachments, to the FSRC Executive Office as determined by the FSRC Board of Directors (BOD).

AWARD NOTIFICATION

The selected recipient will be notified of their award by the date as determined by the BOD. Notice of the award will be posted on the FSRC website and announced at a FSRC meeting to be determined.

REVIEW/SELECTION PROCESS

Applications will be accepted if the postmark or electronic mail date meets the established due date, and will be forwarded to the Qualification Committee for verification of criteria and completeness. The committee will submit recommendations to the FSRC Board who at its sole discretion will select recipients of the award.

The FSRC reserves the right to cancel, hold or refrain from making an award at any time for any reason. The FSRC also reserves the right to provide Scholarship Awards to more than one qualified candidate.

FUNDING

Scholarship funding will be provided through donations and special FSRC projects such as FSRC cook book sales, golf tournaments, matching funds and other FSRC Board approved sources.
